

JERSEY CITY COOKIE SHOP OFFERS THE SWEET SMELL OF HAPPINESS

(06/16/06) JERSEY CITY – A Jersey City businesswoman hopes her creations lead to a better, brighter day for her customers.

Mya Jacobsen left her Wall Street job last year to pursue her lifelong dream. She then opened the Feed Your Soul Cookie Factory, which is a sweet shop that offers a positive message. Jacobsen believes the right words of encouragement can make a person's day much better.

Each tin of cookies comes with an inspirational message. In addition to the positive energy, loyal customers say the cookies are the best they've ever eaten. The cookies are available nationwide, and Jacobson hopes to expand her market overseas in the future.
