WHAT LIES BENEATH

Sex and the City: The Movie hits theaters May 30, and Cosabella is celebrating with a line of themed lingerie made to coincide with the film's release. Carrie types will love the floral set with leopard-print accents; Charlottes, the bamboo camisole; and Samanthas will fall for the saucy number shown here (thong, $36; bra, $82), which could help you stay, um, "busy" till opening day arrives. Available at the HBO Shop, 1100 Avenue of the Americas, 212-512-7467.

YOU'RE HIRED

With his extensive experience on Wall Street—and the fame he gained on NBC's The Apprentice—Kwame Jackson knows success comes only with proper presentation, so it seems fitting that his new entrepreneurial venture involves executive neckwear. His Krimson by Kwame line of ties ($75 each) is a boardroom must-have. Visit krimsonbykwame.com.—S.W.

SHIPPING NEWS

Cruises always made us think of Orlando and Legionnaires' Disease—until the Yachts of Seabourn came along. With destinations like Dubai, Thailand, and Greece, five-star dining courtesy of chef Charlie Parker, and an "anything is possible" request policy, a Seabourn cruise feels more like a trip aboard Paul Allen's Octopus and less like a ride in a floating cattle car. And next year Seabourn will launch Odyssey, a new vessel that will be three times bigger than the current fleet of ships, but house only twice as many passengers. All aboard. Yachts of Seabourn, 6100 Blue Lagoon Drive, Suite 400, Miami, 305-463-3000; seabourn.com.—MICHAEL B. DOUGHERTY

THE OBJECT OF OUR CONFECTION

For the mom who has everything, there are now treats that actually give back. A portion of the proceeds from Feed Your Soul cookies—customized, made fresh to order, and beautifully packaged—is donated to the charity of your choice. And just in time for Mother's Day, try the new line of mini cakes (set of four, $24.95). Sweet. Visit feedyoursoulcookies.com.—S.W.
